

The Governing Council will be an interim body. A body to ensure that all Iraqis' views are properly represented in this interim Twiod.

The Governing Council will -- for the first time in Iraq's history -- bring together a balanced representative group of political leaders from across the country. It will represent the diversity of IraqS 97ib2Caroperat